My first day at school.

My name's Betty Stewart and I am an English teacher. I was twenty-two years old when I got my first teaching job. I remember my first day very well.

The day did not start well. I got up early and got dressed. Then I dropped my cup of tea all over my new skirt. I quickly put on clean clothes. I picked up my bag and went to the bus stop. I saw many people waiting for the bus. I asked a woman, «Why are there so many people? » She said, «There's a lot of traffic in the city centre and all the buses are late. » So, I decided to walk to school.

I only had half an hour before my first lesson. I walked very quickly. After some time I could see the school at the end of the road. I felt very happy. Suddenly it started to rain. I ran fast, but I was very wet when I arrived at school. When I got to my classroom, I was five minutes late and I looked wet and horrible, at first, my new students looked surprised when they saw me. Then they all smiled and said, «Good morning Miss Stewart! » I smiled back and said, «Good morning class! » After that, the day got much better.
